

GENERAL INFORMATION

Lectures are open to the public for the fee stated. Only NGC Accredited Judges are eligible to take the course for credit. Send the correct form for refresher credit to State credentials chairman. Be sure to attach a current label from National Gardener. Students taking the Point Scoring Exam are advised to bring their own clipboards and pencils. To receive credit for this symposium, judges must have the Handbook for Flower Shows, 2007, with them.

Out of State Judges: If attending the symposium for credit you must first contact your State FSS Chairman to verify your credentials and request that chairman to notify FGCNYS Credentials Chairman, Lucy Volland, of your eligibility.

INSTRUCTORS

Julia Clevett is originally from the United Kingdom. After living in New Jersey for many years, where she started to become deeply involved in all aspects of Garden Club activities, Julia and her husband moved to Virginia several years ago. Julia is a National Design Instructor, a Master Flower Show Judge, a Former President of GC of Watchung and GC of New Jersey. She is currently a member of the NGC, Inc. Executive Board, holds the position of Symposium Chair and is a member of the NGC Flower Show Schools Committee. A Creative Floral Design of Julia's is featured on the front cover of the newly published NGC book "Designing by Types". She has numerous other designs in this book. In the newly published WAFA Book "Flower Arranging the American Way" you may also see examples of her Creative Design work. Julia had the honor to represent NGC as a Floral Design Demonstrator at the WAFA World FS held in Boston, MA in June 2011. She was the only NGC Design Instructor to be so honored. She has traveled extensively in the US, Central and South America, teaching NGC FS School Courses and Symposia and has given floral demonstrations all over the US as well as in Mexico and Colombia, S A.

Dorothy Yard is a Graduate of California State College and West Virginia University. Four Star Member of NGC, having completed all four schools, Flower Show School, Gardening Study, Environmental Studies and Landscape Design. As an NGC Instructor, has served on the NGC Flower Show Schools Committee for nine years, and has taught horticulture in 37 states. Grew up with plants indoors and out and found gardening to be a wonderfully refreshing activity and respite from a busy household with four children. The bonuses of this pseudo career are meeting interesting, involved people all over the country and learning from them. Current activities include doing counted cross stitch, solving crossword puzzles and Sudoku, participating in the chancel and bell Choirs at her church and, of course, more gardening!
Her motto is :

Everyone of us should be more like the plants we love to tend and GROW
